NOOR SPEAKER

Imam Kamil Mufti

Educated at the University of Texas at Austin, he devoted himself to years of the study of Aqeeda, tafsir, hadith, fiqh, and the Arabic language that took him from Mauritania to Cairo. In Quran, he holds formal ijaza in recitation through one of the shortest isnads in the world to the Prophet.

He also holds formal ijaza to transmit fiqh and all major books of hadith. The Imam studied advanced texts of Islamic creed with scholars including Sheikh Hasan al-Homaid, a former mufti of Qatar. His foremost teacher was Sheikh al-Murabit Salim al-Addud as-Shinqiti. He studied hadith terminology (mustalah) with Sheikh Mustafa al-Azami (Dar al-‘Uloom, Deoband and Oxford University).

His civil rights efforts culminated by the passing of the resolution against Islamophobia by his home city in IL in July, 2016. He was invited to the President's National Prayer Breakfast in Feb 2017 by the US Congress.
